A person shall be entitled to a patent unless --
(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Response to the Applicants' Arguments

7. Applicants' arguments filed August 25, 2006 have been fully considered but they are not deemed to be persuasive.

Attention is directed to the Claim 1, wherein "A copolymer comprising at least one first monomeric unit and at least one second monomeric unit, wherein the at least one first monomeric unit has Formulae I and I(a).....and the at least one second monomeric unit is selected from fused ring aromatic groups having Formula VI ...."

Art Unit: 1713

Thus, the present claim is drawn to a copolymer having at least two specific monomeric units, which includes copolymers having different arrangement of these two monomeric units. Furthermore, since copolymer comprises at least two specific monomeric units, the copolymer can also include copolymer having the at least two specific monomeric units and another monomeric unit such as spiro unit or unit having triple or double bond. In conclusion, the present rejections are maintained.

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
